Mad Libs

 20 Minutes

Instructions:

Play by Yourself:

1. Cut out the mad lib story cards without looking at the story side of the card.
2. Place the word list sides of the cards face up in a pile.
3. Note: If you aren't able to print the cards double sided, cut out both sides of the card, match the fronts with backs and glue or tape them together to be double sided.
4. Pick a card and creatively complete the word list side of the card. Use the word list ideas to help you get started.
5. Flip the cards and transfer your word list to the blanks on the story side.
6. Read the mad lib, laugh out loud and share with your friends!
7. Repeat steps 3-5 with the remaining cards.
8. Share your mad lib stories at the dinner table and get your whole family laughing!

Play with 3 or More Players:

1. Print the mad lib story cards story side only.
2. Cut out the cards without looking at the stories and place them face down in a pile.
3. Cut out each word from the word list ideas and make a big pile.
4. Each player takes 10 word cards per round.
Note: If you don't have enough words, make up your own and add them to the pile!
5. For each round flip over one story card.
6. Each player will choose words from their hand to fill in the blanks in the story.
7. When everyone has chosen their words, players take turns reading the story with their words to fill in the blanks.
8. After everyone read their version, it's time to vote for the one you liked best. You may not vote for yourself. At the count of 3, everyone points to the player the choose and the player with the most votes wins a point
9. The player who earns 3 points first wins!
